LOCAL FIRM CHANGES NAME.

In 1906 the Quarles & Sadler Dry Goods Co. was incorporated, the incorporators being B. L. & L. C. Quarles, W. F. Sadler, W. M. Gailbreath and John J. Gore. In 1910 Mr. Sadler sold his interest to J. L. McCawley, but the name of the firm was not changed. Since Mr. McCawley has been with the firm as Secretary-Treasurer for 9 years, giving his entire time and attention to the business, the stockholders thought his name should more definitely connect with that of the firm, so at a recent meeting a resolution was passed authorizing the directors to change the name of the firm to that of QUARLES & McCAWLEY CO. The stockholders of the firm are the same as before, each one retaining the same interest, and the management is the same it has been since 1910. The only change made is in the name.

SHERIFF RAIDS STILL.

Sheriff, John M. Spurlock, made a trip to the 7th district last Wednesday night, where he arrested Tom Halfacre in a wild-cat still, and destroyed 1000 gallon of beer and slop. The still was located on the farm of Lane Halfacre's on Puncheon Camp creek, and in 200 yards of Tom Halfacre's residence, in the middle of a large field. From all indications the still had been run in that neighborhood for some time. When arrested Halfacre was sloping his hogs at the still, but denied that he knew anything about whose it was. He was brought to Gainesboro and by the direction of Judge Gardenhire was taken before the grand jury, which resulted in several indictments.

Sheriff Spurlock was assisted in the raid by Cowan Brown, deputy sheriff, Nelse Carter and "Long" Tom Brown, constables.

PROMINENT CITIZEN DIES.

H. A. Crabtree, age 70 years, a well known and highly respected citizen of this county, died at his home on Brimstone creek, Tuesday evening about 5 o'clock of influenza. Mr. Crabtree had been enjoying reasonable good health for a man of his age, until a few months ago he began to feel indisposed, and when he contracted influenza the end came quickly.

He was a minister of the church of Christ, believing in the fatherhood of God and brotherhood of man. He believed that the man who scatters flowers in the pathway of his fellow men, who lets into the dark places of life, sunshine and happiness, is following in the footsteps of his Master. His cheerful, helpful life; his devotion to his family and kindness to every-
